

Deutschorden – Ordine Teutonico

Weggensteinstraße 10 via Weggenstein
I-39100 Bozen – Bolzano

Der Deutsche Orden, dessen Mitglieder sich nach dem ehemaligen deutschen Spital in Jerusalem „Brüder vom Deutschen Haus Sankt Mariens in Jerusalem“ nannten, wurde 1190 in Akkon gegründet, zunächst als Spitalbruderschaft und seit 1198 auch als ritterliche Gemeinschaft zum Schutz der Pilger im Heiligen Land.

Der Deutsche Orden kam 1202 nach Bozen, wo ein Hospital und eine Kirche in der Nähe des Eisacks am Fuß des Virglbergs entstanden. Da der Standort immer wieder durch Überflutungen gefährdet war, erwarb der Orden 1392 im Bozner Ortsteil Dorf den niederadeligen Wohnturm Weggenstein.

Im Jahr 1400 verlegte der Orden seinen Sitz definitiv an den neuen Standort, der inzwischen zu einer Landkommende innerhalb der Deutschordensballei An der Etsch und im Gebirge erhoben worden war.

1932 wurde mit dem Collegium Marianum ein Schüler- und Studentenheim begründet. Amerikanische Bombenangriffe im Zweiten Weltkrieg beschädigten 1944 die Kirche und Teile der Kommende, insbesondere den Knöringenturm. Anlässlich des 800-Jahr-Jubiläums des Deutschen Ordens wurde der barocke Zustand des Ensembles wiederhergestellt und im wiederaufgebauten Knöringenturm 1991 eine Kapelle geweiht.

Heute sind die Mitglieder des Deutschen Ordens sowohl in der Seelsorge als auch in der Altenpflege tätig. Im Collegium Marianum sind seit 2016 ausschließlich Studenten untergebracht.

The student hostel Collegium Marianum in Bozen

The Collegium Marianum is managed by the Teutonic Order and it is situated in a quiet residential quarter of Bozen/Bolzano, just a few minutes of walk from the city center and the University.

Assignment of accomodation

Accommodation is allocated by the University Welfare Office (the office takes part of the public administration of the Autonomous Province of Bolzano).

Students who are regularly enrolled and follow a course at a University in South Tyrol or who are doing an internship in this regard, can submit the request for an accommodation in a student hostel.

Should you be interested, you need to submit a request to the responsible office. You can contact the office by calling the telephone number 0039 0471 412941 or writing an e-mail to hochschulfoerderung@provinz.bz.it. The places in the student hostel are going to be assigned directly by the mentioned office. Further information are available on webpage Südtiroler Bürgernetz – Heime für Studierende in Südtirol.
