

The student hostel Peter Rigler in Bozen

The student hostel Peter Rigler is located just a few minutes of walk from the city center, the University and the Konservatorium Claudio Monteverdi Bozen. Offering ideal living conditions for 91 students, the hostel was completed in 2010 and it is managed by the Teutonic Order.
Appealing and furnished to a high standard, the student hostel offers, in addition to the living units, several common and leisure rooms. From the terraces and the south side balconies students can enjoy an amazing view on the vineyard next to the student hostel.

Assignment of accommodation

Accommodation is allocated by the Office for School and Higher Education Support (the office takes part of the public administration of the Autonomous Province of Bolzano).
Students who are regularly enrolled at a higher education institution in South Tyrol, or who are completing an internship in this context, are entitled to submit the request for an accommodation in a student hostel.

The Office for School and Higher Education Support can be contacted by phone at +39 0471 412949 or by email at: hoch.schulfoerderung@provinz.bz.it.
